Central Christian 2019-2020 Sixth Grade

SIXTH GRADE SUMMER READING EVALUATION

Where the Red Fern Grows, by Wilson Rawls, is required summer reading for students entering sixth grade. There will be a five question quiz about that book the first week of school.

Students are also required to read any other book from the Suggested Reading List for 6th Grade on the CCS website. The student will submit a summary of the book when they enter sixth grade in the fall. The summary should include the following:

Title of the book

Author of the book

Number of pages in the book

Book category (fiction, non-fiction, biography, Christian fiction, auto-biography)

Setting(s) and time of the book

Description of the main characters in the book

Description of the plot

Describe the climax of the story

Brief summary of the story's ending

Conclude with your impression of the book

You will receive a quiz grade in language for this summary.
